

Stephen Risley, Associate

Stephen Risley joined Kilmer Crosby & Quadros in 2018 as an associate. Stephen is a commercial trial lawyer representing businesses and individuals in federal and state courts. Stephen has extensive experience in all aspects of the litigation process and currently practices primarily in real estate and bankruptcy litigation.

Prior to joining Kilmer Crosby & Quadros, Stephen primarily practiced personal injury litigation and was first chair on several jury trials. While in law school at the University of Houston Law Center, Stephen was a member of the school's national moot court program, competing in three national competitions. Stephen was also a finalist and won best speaker at the 2013 John Black Moot Court Competition. While at school, Stephen also interned for the Honorable Kem Frost on the 14th Circuit Court of Appeals.
